Sunday is the last day in our winter or regular schedule. Starting June 23 there will be one service at 10:00am. Refreshments will be served outside, weather permitting. There is no Sunday School, but children will leave after the Children's Sermon to attend 40 Minute Club. Also the choir will be taking their "summer vacation", but there will be special music each Sunday. There will be no Sunday breakfast again until September 8, the Sunday after Labor Day when we return to our winter schedule.
