

Sunday is promising to be a little bit cooler so venture out and join us in worship! Pastor's sermon is titled "The Search for a More Useful Faith" from Luke 10:38-42. Vic Werner will provide special music.

The rosebud on the organ signifies the healthy birth of Caleb Josiah Mohr, son of Laura Kay & Frank Mohr and grandson of Pastor & Mrs. Cobb. Caleb weighed in at 8lb 14oz.

Altar flowers are given in loving memory Catherine Wilson by Tina Brown.

* * * * *

There will be a picnic behind the manse Sunday at 11:30 for our youth and families. Come and enjoy. Pool is 82°. July 28 the pastor is having an open picnic for anyone who would like to come.

* * * * *

The mission team from the Presbytery of Eastern VA is finishing up their work today. Sunday we welcome a new team from Whitinsville, MA who will be staying through lunch on Friday. A team from Ashburn, VA arrives Thursday evening and will leave after worship next Sunday.

* * * * *

There is still room on Pastor's cabin trip July 30-Aug. 1. Sign up in the vestibule. Cost is $35.00.

* * * * *

The Evergreens will have a picnic behind the manse Wednesday at noon. Come for great food and mid summer fellowship.

* * * * *

Love Jersey Fresh? Of course you do!! Visit Jersey Fresh online for locations, recipes, and up to the minute reports on which items are currently being harvested and available. Yum!

* * * * *

By Our Talents...

Head Ushers

Jan & Carol Jorgensen

Lay Assistant

Rev. Gerry Reedell

Collection

Dee & Jack Heil

Nursery

Alice Malfi

40 Minute Club

K-3 – Jennifer Platt, Karen Little

4-7 – Barbara Hughes and son(s)

Deacons Guest Book

Dottie McCaffrey

Van Driver

Tina Brown

Refreshments

Jo-ann Weller

* * * * *

Please Remember in Prayer

JoAnne Morgan – in Fox Chase

Ferd Morgan's brother - stroke

Robbie Krause – in Seacrest Village

Those suffering from heat

* * * * *

This Week in Our Church . . .

Sunday

9:50 Hymn Sing

10:00 Worship

11:30 Manse Picnic for Youth & Families

Mission Team arrives from Whitinsville, MA

Monday

Tuesday

Wednesday

Noon Evergreens Picnic at Manse

Thursday

Mission Team arrives from Ashburn, VA (through Sunday)

Friday

Saturday