

Join us Sunday at 9:30 or 11:00. As we light the last candle on the perimeter of our Advent wreath, the Love Candle, may we feel the closer presence of the Christ in our midst as we approach Christmas Day.

Richard Garrick will provide special music and accompany the hymns, and the Doug Jablonski Men's Group will sing for our Call To Worship.

Pastor's sermon is titled "Dream Builders" from Matthew 1:18-25.

There will be two services on Tuesday night. Family worship begins at 5:00p with a pageant by our children. The traditional worship begins at 7:00 and will be a service of lessons and carols. The bells will play and the choir will sing. Our live nativity at both services will be Jack, Kendal, and Aiden Cobb.

Our final caroling event will be Monday at 6:00pm. All are welcome!

"Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel," which means, "God is with us." ~ Matthew 1:23

The beauty of Christmas is not in the presents but in His presence. May His presence give you greater joy throughout the coming year. Merry Christmas ~ Gay

We still have many of the Church ornaments we sold as a fundraiser for our 150th Anniversary. We will be selling them for $5 each in Madden Hall at breakfast and between the services. Some of our new members may not have seen them. They are beautiful and you may want one for your tree or as a gift for someone. Carol Thomas will have them so look for her.

Pledge cards continue to come in so it's never too late! Have we heard from you? Also, only gifts made and received by December 31 can be counted on your income tax for 2013 deductions.

Please check your mailbox on Sunday. Your new church directory is in them and so are your offering envelopes for 2014.
