It is with both regret and celebration that we announce the retirement of Gay Channell as Administrative Assistant the end of July.

Everyone will agree Gay has been a fabulous asset to our church with her hard work, attention to detail and compassion to her fellow church members. She will be deeply missed at her desk but thankfully will continue to worship with us.

Gay, everyone wishes you and your family all the best in the years to come.

*A Very Special Thank You,
Personnel Committee*
