

“After hearing that John the Baptist had been executed by Herod, Jesus withdrew from there by boat to a secluded place to be by himself. And having heard that he withdrew, crowds from the towns followed him. And having gone out to him, Jesus saw a great crowd and was moved with compassion toward them, and healed the sick among them.”

Matthew 14:13-14 (Pastor’s Translation)

Please Keep These Requests in Prayer

For an end to this pandemic, healing for the sick, protection for those at risk, and comfort for those grieving.

For all those states and communities where the number of COVID-19 cases continues to rise.

For us in states and communities where the numbers are going down, give us your wisdom, guidance and safety, as we continue to open up in an effort to resume life as it was.

For those in healthcare facilities, apart from visitors, and the healthcare providers, putting their lives on the line.

For those who put their lives on the line to serve our needs.

For all who are returning to work or are starting new jobs.

For those who remain unemployed.

For a cure, treatments to save lives, and for our government leaders to unite in addressing this crisis.

For the homeless, the hungry, and the poor, struggling more now in this economic recession to meet basic needs.

For the food supply in every nation, rich and poor.

For discernment, wisdom, mental health and peace of mind.

For an end to racism, elitism and hate.

For the humility to listen, especially to the marginalized and those most in need of a voice and opportunity.

For all who gather in digital church.

For these the individuals and families connected to the church community in Absecon: The Family of Isaac Umoren, Diane Ford, Louise Speitel, Aiden & Wendy Licolli, Tony Campolo, Bob & Linda Gillis, Gail, Maria Cuttitta, Irene Smith, Joanne O’Connor, Sharon & Jack Sisko, Jim Price, Lisa Mazza, Christopher Green, Emilia Carboy, Rich & Rob, Lisa Cavanaugh, Phil Abelson

Other Ways to Join Worship

Do you or someone you know struggle with using Facebook for Sunday services? Facebook is ideal because we can interact with each other, but if you or someone you know does not have an account, you can still see the services live and throughout the week via our Web site: www.AbseconPresby.org

If you or someone you know is not connected to the Internet at all, we will mail the bulletin and sermon out midweek. Call the office to add a name and address for the mailing.

And every Monday, afternoon the previous Sunday's sermon will be available by phone to listen day or night at your convenience by calling this number: (609) 212-0313.

What can I give?

The church is one body with many parts. Each of us has something different to offer in terms of time, talent and treasure.

Please consider giving your time by calling and checking in on fellow church members, including friends, but also those you do not talk to regularly.

Please consider giving your talent, by considering ways your skills may help to alleviate the strain put on us all by this pandemic.

Please consider giving your treasure by mailing in your tithes and your offerings. Mail your checks to:
