

But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the LORD," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more."

(Jeremiah 31:33-34)

While they were eating, having taken bread, and having spoken a blessing, he broke it and gave it to them and said, 'Take, this is my body.' And having taken the cup, having given thanks, he gave it to them, and they drank of it all. And he said to them, 'This is the blood of the covenant, which is being poured out for many. Truly I say to you that no, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink of it anew in the Kingdom of God.

(Mark 14:22-25)

One Great Hour of Sharing

'One Great Hour of Sharing' brings congregations together in the Presbyterian Church (USA) to see and help those in need.

At Absecon Presbyterian Church, Carol Kleiner famously led this appeal in our building, and Vic and Rita Abelson took over after her passing. Each year, together we gave, we heard stories of how this money impacts lives, and we passed out those little coin banks to get the kids involved. This appeal has been a part of building this church as a community in service.

Collected during Lent, gifts to the One Great Hour of Sharing appeal supports hunger relief through the Presbyterian Hunger Program, promotes development through the Presbyterian Committee on the Self-Development of People, and assists in areas of disaster through Presbyterian Disaster Assistance.

This year amid this pandemic, our togetherness is already at stake. Please consider demonstrating your unity with your church and denomination by giving to One Great Hour of Sharing this year? You can make your gift online and credit your Absecon Presbyterian Church by following this link—<http://bit.ly/PresbyterianSpecialOfferings>—or you can send a gift to the church designated for the One Great Hour appeal.
